

Inter Faith Week 2016

13–20 November

An opportunity to:

- Strengthen good inter faith relations at all levels
- Increase awareness of the different and distinct faith communities in the UK, in particular celebrating and building on the contribution which their members make to their neighbourhoods and to wider society
- Increase understanding between people of religious and non-religious beliefs

Some ways of marking the Week

- Faith trails and open door days
- Dialogues, debates and talks
- Whole school and classroom activities
- Hands-on learning activities and exhibitions
- Joint social action projects
- Young people's inter faith forum events
- Workplace religion and belief literacy event or training
- Art and photography competitions
- Inter faith sporting events
- Launching a new dialogue or other initiative
- Social media inter faith awareness campaigns
- Exchange visits between members of different places of worship
- Showcasing music or dance from different traditions
- Faith and food events – however you do it, everyone likes to eat!

Join the many faith, belief and inter faith bodies, community and voluntary organisations, businesses, local authorities, emergency services, SACREs, schools, colleges, universities, chaplaincies, sports organisations and others who will be taking part this year and reflecting in their activities many aspects of 'Living well together'.

This year, the Week is extended for a day to run from a Sunday to a Sunday, beginning on Remembrance Sunday. Why not consider an inter faith event linked to this or to the commemoration of the centenary of World War I?
